The Vicksburg and Greenville trade is improving.

The Yazoo river is on a slight rise. The cheap excursion rates to Mem phis and to Vicksburg are still very popular.

The Str. Jno. K. Speed left St. Louis for Cairo, Memphis, Greenville, Vicksburg, and New Orleans. Should leave New Orleans Sept. 18th.

Pittsburg-Next Monday the National Board of Steam Navagation will meet here. Delegates from all the principal ports will attend.

Today (Saturday) the Str. Lucile Nowland left Memphis for Vicksburg, and will pass Greenville tomorrow (Sunday) evening. She will be commanded by Capt. Will Nowland, and will run in connection with the Str. Delta.

Last week the Str. Delta was due Phursday and anxiously looked for, but failed to arrive until 3 p. m. Big business, high banks-labor. She added materially to her troubles here both in frieght and passengers, besides engaging for a big party of round trippers for Memphis, on up trip,

The Str. Belle of the Bends, the fast est boat on the river, came in on Friday, of last week, looking like a thor oughbred with her new tall chimneys. She was loaded down with native hay. By the quantity of native hay sent in this season, the reports about grass must be correct

Capt, Nintz is again on the roof, but affering from a sprained ankle. Capt. Kein also, we regret to notice, was slightly lame, and in much pain from rheumatism. Except for the legs of these officiats, the "Belle" was alright in the fullest sense of the word.

Vicksburg-- Dredge No. 5 of the Yazoo Canal contractor's fleet commenced operations last Thursday at the mouth of the canal, near Klienston, and, making a cut 100 feet wide by 10 feet deep, will push on through Lake Continental. When this cut is completed operations will be transferred to the Yazoo river end of the canal. Capt. Powers has resumed his regular fall and winter schedule in the Vicksburg and Greenville trade, and boats will leave here Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. James M. Peterfield was an applicant for a local pilot's license in Vicksburg harbor. He has been for four years a steersman on the Mattie M. and Sciota, ferries at that point.
